STEPS TO PRINT YOUR ADMISSION TICKET

The next phase in your SAT Registration is receiving your Admission Ticket from College Board. The Admission Ticket is an entry slip to the test centre. It contains your registration information with College Board without which you will not be allowed to enter the venue.

If you have mentioned an accurate address within your SAT form you should receive your Admission Ticket via post directly from College Board. However, if you have not received your ticket then you can print it out through the processes mentioned below.

In case you cannot access your Admission Ticket through Process 1 only then try Process 2.

PROCESS 1

Step 1: Visit the College Board website https://www.collegeboard.org and log in using your account’s Username and Password.

Step 2: Once you sign in please click on yellow icon to the right of your name at the top of the page.

Step 3: You will arrive on the below screen. Select ‘My SAT’.
Step 4: The following screen will appear. You simply have to click on the ‘Print Admission Ticket’ tab

Step 5: Your Admission Ticket will appear, and you can go ahead and print it. Please make sure of the following:
- Your name should appear correctly on the ticket
- Your Date of Birth (DOB) should be correct
- You test date should be 7th December 2019
- Your test type should be SAT with Essay
- Your test venue should be one of your chosen test centres
